They called me to play in Barcelona where. I have trained for a long time. Until a year ago. I left due to contact renewal problems and started playing for Paris Saint-Germain.

And well, in the Argentine national team I had my debut on August 17, 2005, in which we played a friendly against Hungary.

Santiago: Well, Leo, tell us, how do you feel about this new World Cup? What are your expectations?

Messi: And the truth is that you see a lot of competition, surely they will be very competitive matches, I have had a lot of physical training by my coaches as well as the entire squad. We hope that it will be given to us and that we will be able to win and bring victory to our country. But above all, have a good time and have fun with my teammates and team friends.

Santiago: Well Leo, we thank you for your visit, we hope you had a good time, you are welcome whenever you want and we wish you and the team the best of luck so that you can raise that cup that you deserve so much

Leo: Well, I thank you for the invitation and when you need me, I'll be here.
