

In my opinion, I consider that it is very important to do sports to have a healthy lifestyle. If you don't do sports, you are increasing the risk of many diseases, and to suffer many serious consequences in the future. Doing sports on a regular basis increases our quality of life, prevents diseases, keeps us healthy, and helps us maintain a healthy life. This also helps our mental health and keeps us active.