

Writing N°3

Martina Gelvez

One day in the park there was a girl named Renata she was very cheerful she had golden curls honey-colored eyes and a big smile she liked to be in the book squares parks rivers etc. One afternoon she was having a picnic on a rock with her friends shortly after Renata died her stone and a spider appeared under the rock she got very scared and tried to get away but it was not effective because it climbed up her leg.

shutterstock.com · 1573408807

She decided to stay still thinking that it was going to bite her but it was not like that the spider began to climb slowly until it reached her shoulder she tried to talk to the beautiful girl but she did not understand her Rena sent her a message to a friend who knew what the spider wanted to tell Renata She said Hello I'm very lonely Do you want to be my friend and adopt me Renata said yes of course finally they both went happily to Renata's house

