People usually like to go to the Zoo, but not all of they. ADD MORE INFORMATION IN THIS INTRODUCTION

On the one hand, some people think that having a Zoo ~~is~~ a good idea, this is because they make entertainment, education, scientific research and they had endangered species. So this could be a point of favour to the Zoos. For example,

On the other hand, I think isn't great to look up animals. The main argument against zoos is that wild animals need to be in their natural habitat, in the wild. Non-domestic species do not develop their full adaptive capabilities when in captivity. For example,

In conclusion they are many arguments againts the zoos, and in my opinion they shouldn't stay in the zoo, because that isn't they natural habitat.
