

● NEW YEAR ●

I like to do a big celebration in December 31,st with my whote family in the countryside. My dad does the barbecue and my mom does a salty coke and some sándwiches that are ready delicious. My brother and I do the fruit salad and buy ice cream too. They young people drinks sada and the adult prepare a vanety of mixed drinks. We make a beautiful toast with lots of sweet things where we say Good bye to the old year and make wishes for new year. We don't make noise with Fireworks because we take care of the animals and the kids. I do a white oufit look every rear .
