Hello children!! This is your homework for this week. Remember to concentrate and work alone at home. I hope you enjoy it!

We'll work in our copybooks and workbook!

HOMEWORK 1

WORKBOOK, page 62, activities 2 and 3.

1 Read and remember. Answer.

Adverbs of frequency

never sometimes often usually always 0% → 100%

- We use adverbs of frequency to talk about how often we do something.
- Adverbs of frequency go before the verb.

I usually get up early.
Do you ever get up early?

Review the grammar table
Pupil's Book page 19

How often ...? questions

- We use How often ...? to ask questions about frequency.
- We can use different time expressions to talk about how often people do things, e.g. once a day, twice a month, three times a week, every day, on Friday, etc.

I eat chocolate twice a week.
How often do you eat chocolate?
